

School of Social Work

FACULTY OF ARTS

The UBC School of Social Work acknowledges that we are located on the traditional, ancestral, and occupied territory of the hə́nq̓əmiṇəm̓-speaking Musqueam peoples. The School logo designed by Ray Sims, a member of the Musqueam Nation, depicts Raven transforming into a human child. Raven is seen to be the most magical of all beings with the ability to shapeshift into anything at will. The most frequent form Raven takes is that of a human. Through adventures, Raven creates much of what we have around us. Humans learn much and acquire much knowledge of life and living through learning the orals associated with Raven’s adventures and misadventures, for Raven intentionally, as well as inadvertently, has created much by making mistakes.

School Vision: Building upon a foundation of social justice and an ethic of care, we are a community of learners actively engaged in the development of critical, transformative knowledge for social work practice.

BSW Mission

The Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program addresses issues of power and issues of discrimination based on age, race, gender, sexual orientation, class and culture. The educational objective of the BSW curriculum is to provide students with the knowledge, values and skills necessary for an initial level of professional practice, focusing on the interface between personal problems and public issues. Critical thinking and structural analysis are central to the learning experience offered by the School and to the promotion of social justice and human well-being.

About the Instructor

Simon Davis is an adjunct professor at the UBC School of Social Work and an instructor at Vancouver Island University, Faculty of Health Sciences and Human Services, and the Douglas College Post-Degree Program in Psychosocial Rehabilitation. He holds an MSW from UBC and a PhD in Criminology from Simon Fraser University. His professional career has been as a clinician, researcher and administrator in the field of mental health and addictions. At the School he has taught courses in mental health (450 and 525), legal issues (440H) and research methods (320, 553, 554C and 570Z). He is the author of the text Community Mental Health in Canada, published by UBC Press.

Prerequisite and/or Corequisite

There are no prerequisites for this course.

Course Description

This course provides an introduction to Canadian and British Columbia Law as it intersects with the practice of Social Work. We will exam some of the many critical perspectives on law, the legal system and the legal processes that interact with our professional practice. Students will critically examine the interaction of ethics, laws, the culture of law, and the culture of social work. Since this course is an introduction to these concepts, only a few areas of law will be examined. These will include freedom of information; human rights; criminal and youth justice; mental health; disability; health care consent, and adult guardianship.

Course Structure and Learning Activities

Lectures, guest speakers, group discussions.

Required Textbook(s) and Learning Materials

Required text: Regehr, C., Kanani, K., McFadden, J. and Saini, M. (2016). Essential Law for Social Work Practice in Canada. 3rd. Edition. Toronto: Oxford University Press.

Topic:	FINAL EXAM

Assignments

- Term paper: 45%, due on last class, June 21.
- Final exam: 45%, 5-8pm, June 21.
- Discussion: 10%

More details on these are given below.

1. Term paper (45%)

For this paper you are to take a closer, critical look at an area of law and/or the legal system in Canada. Here are examples of possible topics:

- Medically assisted death
- Laws governing “illicit” drug use (decriminalization pros and cons; harm reduction; the four pillars approach; models seen in other countries; historical review)
- “Safe care” act(s) (short-term involuntary detention of at-risk youth) (Bill 22 in BC, not enacted, proposed law that would permit involuntary detention following drug overdose.)
- The over-representation of Indigenous persons in the criminal justice system
- The criminalization of mental illness
- Consent to treatment by young persons; mature minors
- Mental health courts and drug courts
- Involuntary treatment in psychiatry
- The Youth Criminal Justice Act
- End-of-life decision-making
- Diversion programs in the criminal justice system
- First responders, wellness checks, defunding the police and the potential role of social workers as responders.
- Laws concerning the sex trade
- Professional duties and obligations in social work practice.
- Structural discrimination and stigma, for example affecting mental health clients.
- Reconciling competing ethical/legal directives in child welfare
- Disability rights
- Laws & policies concerning gender identification
- Balancing victims’ rights and restorative justice approaches.
- Laws concerning spanking and corporal punishment of children
- Abortion rights

You may choose other topics, however before starting the paper please confirm the topic with the instructor either in class or by e-mail.

For your topic try to address the following points (not all will be salient):

- What is the social relevance and importance of this issue? What are the philosophical and/or ethical issues involved?

- Summarize the legislation and case law bearing on this issue, including how the law(s) may have changed or been amended over time (i.e. provide a historical context). Were there instances where the law was not enacted/blocked/repealed? How is it similar or different to laws in other jurisdictions? Are there any Charter of Rights issues (challenges or potential challenges)?
- What has the media been tending to say on the topic (if anything), i.e. how has it been “shaped?”
- What groups are most affected (referring to age, gender, ethnicity and other intersections)? Are there groups left out (for example re medically assisted death should psychiatric illness qualify?)
- What are the current key debates, and possible controversies or disagreements? For example, you could consider arguments in favor of marijuana legalization from a harm reduction perspective, and against it from a public health view that considers vulnerable young persons.
- Are there practical or clinical aspects of the administration of the law that are, or will be, problematic? In considering this you may draw on your own experience, or interview a social worker working within this legal context.
- What is the relevance of this issue to social work practice? In considering this you may use a case-based analysis, that is, describe a hypothetical (or actual, anonymized) client scenario where you are the worker involved, and speak about how the law is interpreted, ethical dilemmas you would face, and practical or clinical implications.

Length: 13-15 double-spaced pages (check with me if you are worried about being too “over or under”).

Due date: last class, June 21, 2023

Marking guidelines and rubric

Did you:

- Address the bulleted points above that apply.
- Integrate course material, and include references outside of this – a minimum of six published sources, cited as per APA.
- Write in a clear, coherent fashion, where there is a logical flow, and where attention is paid to grammar. (Tip: consider breaking the paper up under sub-headings). Note that 10 of the 45 marks are given for style points (grammar, spelling, sentence structure, clarity, cogency).

Mark breakdown:

- Social relevance – 5 points
- Relevance to social work – 5 points
- Groups most affected/excluded/discriminated – 5 points

- Legislation – reference to relevant legislation (case and statutory law) – 10 points
 - Current debates – 10 points
 - Grammar and composition – 10 points
- A. To submit your final paper go to the "assignments" link in Canvas, then scroll to and click "final paper," then click "submit assignment," then upload your Word file into Canvas.
 - B. Please also send a copy by e-mail.
 - C. Comments will be written electronically on the document in the Canvas site.

2. Final exam (45%)

The final exam will be open-book, held on the last class, June 21st. Students will be given several case summaries, and are asked to apply elements of the law that have been covered in class to each case. For example, in a case describing the possible abuse of an older adult, students will be asked about applying the Adult Guardianship Act, what steps they would follow, and what information would be needed to be gathered to support an investigation. More details on this and examples will be given in class.

3. Discussions (10%)

For each class in the Canvas module there is a corresponding section in the discussions link (see menu on left side of page). The purpose here is for students to make comments on the course material pertaining to that class; this could include anything that may have surprised you, or that you might have found problematic, or other questions that you may have thought of that were not addressed in the class. You may also share resources, or speak about experiences from your own life, including work life, that may have some applicability. This is a relatively unstructured exercise, where the length of each post would be a couple of paragraphs, or about 200-300 words. The discussions for each week (Monday to Sunday) should be completed by the end of the week, Sunday midnight, relating to the two classes held that week.

SCHOOL/COURSE POLICIES

UBC COVID-19

The School follows UBC health and safety guidelines. Please see <https://covid19.ubc.ca/> for current information and guidance.

Course Policies

- Last day to withdraw without a W standing: May 19, 2023
- Students who miss more than 3 classes may be refused the right to hand in a final assignment. Attendance sheets must be signed during each class.
- Academic Dishonesty: Please read the UBC Calendar on the subject of academic regulations and the University's policies on plagiarism:
<http://www.calendar.ubc.ca/Vancouver/index.cfm?tree=3,54,111,959>
- Students with ability/disability issues are encouraged to inform the instructor of these issues at the beginning of the course so that appropriate accommodations can be made for them. The University accommodates students with disabilities who have registered with the Disability Resource Centre. Please let your instructor know in advance, preferably in the first week of class, if you will require any accommodation on these grounds.
- Students who plan to be absent for varsity athletics, family obligations, or other similar commitments, cannot assume they will be accommodated, and should discuss their commitments with the instructor before the drop date.
- Late Assignments: Extensions are granted only in cases of personal illness or family issues and not because of academic workload or conflicts. Extensions must be requested in advance of the due date of the assignment
- Participation is expected of all students beyond simple attendance. Students are expected to come to class prepared to discuss the material.
- Students should not be accessing the internet while in class and cell phones should be turned off.

Attendance

The attendance policy is in the student handbook on page 8. You can find the student handbook on the Advising page of our website: <https://socialwork.ubc.ca/undergraduate/advising/>

“Regular attendance is expected of students in all their classes (including lectures, laboratories, tutorials, seminars, etc.). Students who neglect their academic work and assignments may be excluded from the final examinations. Students who are unavoidably absent because of illness or disability should report to their instructors on return to classes.” (UBC Calendar)

The School considers class attendance to be an essential component of integrated learning in professional social work education. Therefore, regular attendance is required in all social work courses. Instructors may count repeated late arrivals or early departures as an absence, and a meeting should be setup to discuss this with the student. If students miss three or more classes, they may be considered to have not met the requirements of the course. If students have valid reasons, they could be withdrawn from the course with the approval of the instructor – otherwise, they would fail the course.

Other school policies can be accessed through the School of Social Work student handbook.

Accommodations

The University accommodates students with disabilities who have registered with Access and Diversity. Students, who will require accommodation for attendance due to disability, are encouraged to inform the instructor, and if necessary, to contact Access and Diversity preferably not later than the first week of class. The School will also accommodate religious observance, according to University Policy 65, and students are expected to inform the instructor. Students who wish to be accommodated for unavoidable absences due to varsity athletics, family obligations, or other similar commitments, must notify their instructors in writing at least two weeks in advance, and preferably earlier. This reflects expectations for professional social workers in their place of employment.

Learning Resources

UBC Learning Commons has a variety of tools and information such as; borrowing equipment, academic integrity (APA Citation Guide), writing support, skills for class, skills for life and academic support to assist students in their learning. <https://learningcommons.ubc.ca/>

Library resources:

Contact for UBC Law Library reference staff: <https://law.library.ubc.ca/refstaff/>

Contact for UBC Social Work librarian: <http://directory.library.ubc.ca/people/view/709>

University Policies

Support: UBC provides resources to support student learning and to maintain healthy lifestyles but recognizes that sometimes crises arise and so there are additional resources to access including those for survivors of sexual violence. UBC values respect for the person and ideas of all members of the academic community. Harassment and discrimination are not tolerated nor is suppression of academic freedom. UBC provides appropriate accommodation for students with disabilities and for religious observances. UBC values academic honesty and students are expected to acknowledge the ideas generated by others and to uphold the highest academic standards in all of their actions.

Details of the policies and how to access support are available at:
<https://senate.ubc.ca/policies-resources-support-student-success>

During the term, I will do my best to offer support if I am concerned about your academic performance or wellbeing. I also encourage you to contact me or your academic advisor if you need assistance. In addition, I may identify concerns using the UBC Early Alert system which provides students with the earliest possible connection to resources like academic advising, financial advising, counseling, or other support services to help you get back on track. Any information transmitted through early alert is treated as confidential (see earlyalert.ubc.ca).

Academic Dishonesty: Please review the UBC Calendar “Academic regulations” for the university policy on cheating, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty. Also visit www.arts.ubc.ca and go to the students’ section for useful information on avoiding plagiarism and on correct documentation.

GRADING CRITERIA

Letter Grade	Percent Range	Mid-Point
A+	90-100	95	Represents work of exceptional quality. Content, organization and style are all at a high level. Student demonstrates excellent research and reference to literature where appropriate. Also, student uses sound critical thinking, has innovative ideas on the subject and shows personal engagement with the topic.
A	85-89	87
A-	80-84	82
B+	76-79	77.5	Represents work of good quality with no major weaknesses. Writing is clear and explicit and topic coverage and comprehension is more than adequate. Shows some degree of critical thinking and personal involvement in the work. Good use of existing knowledge on the subject.
B	72-75	83.5
B-	68-71	69.5
C+	64-67	65.5	Adequate and average work. Shows fair comprehension of the subject, but has some weaknesses in content, style and/or organization of the paper. Minimal critical awareness or personal involvement in the work. Adequate use of literature.
C	60-63	62.5
C-	55-59	57
D	50-54	52	Minimally adequate work, barely at a passing level. Serious flaws in content, organization and/or style. Poor comprehension of the subject, and minimal involvement in the paper. Poor use of research and existing literature.
F	0-49		Failing work. Inadequate for successful completion of the course or submitted beyond final date of acceptance for paper.
